NARRATIVE:

Christian Andreani is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include assault with a deadly weapon, robbery, domestic violence with injury, battery with great bodily injury, forgery, identity theft, possession of controlled substances, possession of controlled substances for sale, resisting a peace officer, possession of marijuana and marijuana while driving. He has served multiple prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for assault with a deadly weapon. Andreani was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 9, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Andreani qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances for sale is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
